

BOOK, FILM AND RADIO GUIDE

DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARIES, VISUAL AIDS AND RADIO, BOARD OF EDUCATION, NEWARK, N. J.
Published to acquaint teachers with new materials of instruction

December 13, 1948

ANNOTATED SUBJECT LIST OF WBGO BROADCASTS

February 14 to June 17, 1949

The following annotated list of programs to be heard over WBGO-FM has been prepared as a guide for teachers in selecting programs for classroom listening and in ordering Teachers' Manuals. Manuals are available for each series starred (*). Please order Manuals by calling or writing Mrs. Roberta B. Freund, 15 Lawrence Street, Newark, New Jersey (Market 2-6700, ext. 102) before February 4, 1949 if possible. They will be sent to you on your school trip from the Department of Libraries, Visual Aids and Radio.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

*"So You Want to go into Business!" (High school)

A series of sixteen dramatized radio broadcasts, planned to enrich and stimulate classroom activities in business education. Written by Newark teachers and students and members of the WBGO staff, each program highlights a particular aspect of business education.

Broadcast: Thursday, 10:48 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.; Friday, 10:18 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.
Beginning March 22 and running through June 14, this series will also be heard on Tuesdays at 11:03 a.m.

CONSERVATION

*Bill Scott - Forest Ranger (Grades 6-9)

This series of twelve broadcasts on conservation should open an entire new world to our city children. These recorded programs are made available to WBGO through the U. S. Department of Agriculture and WNYE, the radio station of the New York City Board of Education.

Broadcast: Monday, 11:18 a.m.; Wednesday, 2:30 p.m.; Friday, 10:33 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Language is Fun (Grades 8-12)

This introductory series of five programs is presented mostly in English by the students of Latin, Italian, French, Spanish and German. The purpose of the series is to illustrate the interesting activities of foreign language students such as clubs, assembly programs, plays and festivals. Emphasis is placed on the special characteristics of each language and the customs of the people who have used the language. Descriptive material of each program is available.

Broadcast: Monday, 9:45 a.m.; Tuesday, 11:03 a.m.; Friday, 1:45 p.m.

GUIDANCE

Career Forums (High school)

Interviews with Newarkers who have made a success in their life work in the fields of business, the professions and the trades. The guest each week will be interviewed by a guidance counselor and students. This series is arranged and produced in cooperation with the Department of Secondary School Guidance.
Broadcast: Wednesday, 10:15 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.; Friday, 11:18 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

College Guidance (High school)

In this special feature the Department of Secondary School Guidance in cooperation with the nearby colleges, presents for high school students a review of the opportunities for higher education in and near Newark. These programs are under the direct supervision of Mr. Fred Landolphi, Director of the Department of Secondary School Guidance.
Broadcast: Friday, 9:30 a.m.

*"So You Want to go into Business!" (High school)

See descriptive annotation under BUSINESS EDUCATION.

Bill Scott - Forest Ranger (Grades 6-9)

See descriptive annotation under CONSERVATION.

HEALTH EDUCATION

*Child Development and Care (High school and adult)

The Department of Health Education and Service presents these six broadcasts in the fields of child care and home nursing. These programs were prepared by the teachers of child care and home nursing in our high schools, under the leadership of Miss Mary B. Hulsizer, Assistant Supervisor in charge of Nursing and Child Health.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 10:18 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.; Friday, 10:48 a.m. The series begins March 29 and runs through May 10.

Talks to Parents (Adult)

Dr. Bruce B. Robinson, Director of the Department of Child Guidance, continues his programs of advice and help to parents in guiding the mental and physical growth of their children.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 10:48 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.

LANGUAGE ARTS

*Books...Bring Adventure, Series 3 (Grades 5-9)

The subtitle of this series is "New Worlds A-Growin'". There are thirteen adventure books dramatized in this series.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 11:18 a.m. and 2:15 p.m.; Thursday, 10:33 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Happily Ever After (Primary)

These story programs for the younger child bring to the classroom and the home some of the best of the commercial story records.

Broadcast: Monday, 10:38 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.; Wednesdays, 10:38 a.m. and 1:35 p.m. Beginning March 25 and running through June 17, this series will also be heard on Friday at 1:45 p.m.

LANGUAGE ARTS (CONTINUED)

Speech Education (Grades 3-12)

Direct lessons for good speech, including such vehicles as choral speaking, will be offered as teaching continuity between visits of the speech teacher to the classroom. Mimeographed practice material will be sent to school principals each week so teachers may augment the lesson presented. This material will indicate specific grades. The speech teachers' services will be available in the implementation of the series.

Broadcast: Monday, 11:03 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.; Thursday, 11:18 a.m.; Friday, 9:45 a.m.

MATHEMATICS

*Geometry in Court (Grades 10-12)

A series of five broadcasts dramatizing deductive proof in plane geometry and comparing it with inductive thinking. Based on a play prepared by David Skolnik, Chairman of the Mathematics Department of Central High School.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 10:18 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.; Friday, 10:48 a.m. Series begins February 15 and runs through March 22. It will be repeated from May 16 to June 13 on the Bill Scott program schedule, as the Bill Scott series ends on May 9.

MUSIC

Album of School Music (All grades)

This series of good music from Newark's schools will be continued.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 11:33 a.m.; Thursday, 10:00 a.m.; Friday, 2:35 p.m.

At the Opera (Junior and senior high school)

Selections from operas, with descriptive comments.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 11:38 a.m.

The Dance (Grades 6-9)

Each week music of a dance form is played and the form explained.

Broadcast: Friday, 11:48 a.m.

*Journeys in Music (Grades 4-6)

The Department of Music Education continues its popular series of piano music and songs for intermediate grades. The entire series is planned, written and produced by Marie Scanlon, who also plays the music and talks to the children.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 10:48 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.; Thursday, 11:03 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. Beginning March 21 and running through June 13 this series will also be heard on Monday at 9:45 a.m.

Melody Time (All grades)

A program of melodious semi-classical, light classical and some shorter "classic" pieces.

Broadcast: Monday, 11:33 a.m.

Music Children Enjoy (Primary)

A program made up of brief comments and the playing of simple selections suitable for the younger child.

Broadcast: Thursday, 11:48 a.m.

MUSIC (CONTINUED)

Solo Stars (All grades)

One star, instrumentalist or vocalist, will be featured each week.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 11:48 a.m.

Your Midday Concert (All grades)

A classical musical program designed to appeal to all ages and groups. Each broadcast features the major works of a different composer. Interesting anecdotes are told about the featured selections.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 12:00 p.m. until 1:15 p.m.

NEWS

Notes on the News (High school)

Paul Lippe, Social Studies teacher at Barringer High School, continues his weekly broadcasts of backgrounds of the news for high school classes.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 11:03 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.; Thursday, 10:18 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.

*What do you Think? (Grades 5-8)

Dr. Paul Van Ness will again be moderator on this news and current events series by and for elementary school children.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 10:33 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.; Thursday, 9:45 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

United Nations (Junior and senior high school)

This series is based on weekly releases from the United Nations prepared especially for high school students. It is not a repetition of what appears in the newspapers as it stresses what the UN actually accomplishes, whether it is a good "news" story or not. It will also give material on the machinery of the UN. The program is prepared and delivered by Charles Brodsky, Chairman of the Social Studies Department of Central High School.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 9:45 a.m.; Friday, 10:00 a.m.

From the Superintendent's Desk (Adult)

Previews of the week's activities in the Newark schools collected and given by Mrs. Hazel W. Howell, Librarian, Board of Education Library. Announcements will be made of school events, achievements, professional meetings of local, regional and national groups. The program is beamed to school principals and librarians, who will disseminate the information to the faculty. New professional books will also be reviewed.

Broadcast: Monday, 9:30 a.m. until 9:35 a.m.

SCIENCE

*Bill Scott - Forest Ranger (Grades 6-9)

See descriptive annotation under CONSERVATION

*World We Live In (Grades 3-6)

This science series, originally written by the staff of the Newark Museum and broadcast for grade 7, has been revised by Dr. Helen Warrin for use in science classes in the lower grades. There is also a complete new Manual for teachers.

Broadcast: Wednesday, 2:15 p.m.; Thursday, 2:30 p.m.; Friday, 11:03 a.m. and 2:20 p.m.

SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITY

School Spotlight (General)

This popular series, featuring a Newark school each week, will be continued. Each school plans and presents its own program.

Broadcast: Monday, 2:15 p.m.; Tuesday, 9:45 a.m.; Thursday, 11:33 a.m.

Newark Museum News (Grades 5-12)

News of the special events and exhibits in our own Museum.

Broadcast: Monday, 10:33 a.m. and 1:40 p.m.; Wednesday, 11:33 a.m.

Talks to Parents (Adult)

See descriptive annotation under HEALTH.

This is Your Teacher (General)

A weekly interview with a member of the Newark teaching staff.

Broadcast: Tuesday, 2:30 p.m.

*Child Development and Care (High school and Adult)

See descriptive annotation under HEALTH.

From the Superintendent's Desk (Adult)

See descriptive annotation under NEWS.

SOCIAL STUDIES

*The American Dream (High school)

This series of thirteen dramatic productions is concerned with problems of human relations in America and features such stars as Helen Hayes, Frederick March, Canada Lee and others.

Broadcast: Monday, 10:18 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.; Tuesday, 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

*This is New Jersey (Grades 6-12)

This series about New Jersey, past and present, is sponsored by the New Jersey Department of Economic Welfare. Although it has a wider span of interest, the series is of particular value to classes in junior business training.

Broadcast: Monday, 10:48 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.; Wednesday, 11:18 a.m.

*Bill Scott - Forest Ranger (Grades 6-9)

See descriptive annotation under CONSERVATION

Notes on the News (High school)

See descriptive annotation under NEWS

*What do You Think? (Grades 5-8)

See descriptive annotation under NEWS

United Nations (Junior and senior high school)

See descriptive annotation under NEWS

Scanned from the National Association of Educational Broadcasters Records at the Wisconsin Historical Society as part of "Unlocking the Airwaves: Revitalizing an Early Public and Educational Radio Collection."

A collaboration among the Maryland Institute for Technology in the Humanities,
University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of Communication Arts, and Wisconsin Historical Society.

Supported by a Humanities Collections and Reference Resources grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this publication/collection do not necessarily reflect those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.